Disaster Assistance Individual Assistance Programs

The State Individual Assistance Program will be made available to assist individuals and families impacted by a State-declared disaster.

When is IA Available?

Individuals and family Grant program (IFG): created to help people towards recovering property losses.

Temporary Housing Program (TH): for homeowners and renters displaced by the disaster having immediate housing needs.

Alaska experiences a wide range of disasters, most commonly floods, storms, and extreme temperature events.

These programs are only activated for disaster recovery by an Individual Assistance Disaster Declaration by the Governor.

Intended to provide assistance to families to permit them to meet disaster related necessary expenses and serious needs for which other assistance is either unavailable or inadequate.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Individuals and Families residing in the Declared Disaster Area

WHAT IS Eligible?

- Housing (dwelling repairs)
- Personal Property (clothing, furniture, etc.)
- Transportation (automobiles)
- Medical, dental, or funeral expenses

First Steps in Determinations of Eligibility:

- Loss must have occurred in Declared Disaster Area
- Loss must be due directly to Disaster Event
- Applicant must exhaust all other government programs first
- Applicant must file an application with the Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management
- Limit one application per household
