Significant Issues:

Wrangell Landside Disaster:

Double lane emergency access routes remain open through the slide area with electrical power to southside residents. Wrangell Police continue to conduct a limited access schedule for residents on either side of the slide. Emergency response and recovery operations continue in coordination with debris removal and reactive search operations. State Individual Assistance Hotline and website is open for residents of Wrangell and Coffman Cove who have experienced damages to their home or have eligible personal expenses that are a direct result of the landslides.

Prince of Wales Island, including City of Klawock and City of Craig:

Governor Dunleavy amended his November 21, 2023, declaration today to include the entire Southeast Island School District Regional Education Attendance Area, including the City of Craig, Hydaburg, and all other impacted jurisdictions and areas on Prince of Wales Island, including City of Klawock for individual and public assistance. SEOC continues to assess damages and coordinate state-level support to affected communities.

Diomedes – Potential Building Structural Collapse

SEOC received DOT/PF Engineer’s report following the structural assessment conducted Sunday and SEOC continues to work with the City of Diomedes, Bering Strait School District, Kawerak, DOT, ANTHC and DEC to evaluate any potential impacts from the building collapse. Diomedes’s school is closed today but will resume school through remote learning.

State of Alaska Department of Health (DOH)

The DOH stands ready to assist with all aspects of public health and in the event of a public health emergency, supported by the SEOC and other state departments as required. For current information, see:
