<https://gov.alaska.gov/newsroom/2020/11/12/governor-dunleavy-urges-alaskans-to-take-immediate-action-to-slow-covid-19/>

Governor Dunleavy is taking the following executive actions:

- On Monday, November 16 at 12:01 a.m. his new 30-day COVID-19 disaster declaration takes effect.
- Effective immediately all State employees are to work from home whenever feasible.
- Face masks and social distancing are now mandatory at State work sites for both employees and visitors.

Governor Dunleavy and Alaska's public health officials are now asking all businesses, organizations, and local governments to take the following actions through the end this month:

- Businesses, organizations, and local governments that can operate remotely are urged to send their employees home as soon as possible.
- Businesses and organizations that can offer food and supplies online with curbside pickup are urged to do so.

Distance remains the primary tool in slowing the spread of COVID-19. In order to keep hospitals, health care facilities, and businesses operating, all Alaskans are urged to:

- Maintain a distance of six feet apart from all non-household members.
- If a distance of six feet apart is not possible, wear a mask or face covering.

"We have sacrificed so much in order to fight this virus. Alaskans have done so well, and I am proud to be your Governor. With the advent of inoculations on the horizon, the end to this fight is in sight," said Governor Dunleavy.
