

Alaska Village Evacuation Shelter Directory – Field Reference

This template is designed for emergency managers and tribal coordinators in remote Alaskan communities. It helps document locally accessible shelter resources, estimated capacities, contacts, and logistical limitations.

Village Shelter Overview

Village Name:
Tribe / City Administrator Contact:
Region / Borough:
Number of Residents (Est.):
Known Hazards (Flood, Fire, Storm Surge, etc.):
Typical Evacuation Triggers:

Primary Shelter Details

Shelter Name & Type (e.g., School, Clinic, Hall):
Location / GPS Coordinates:
Maximum Capacity (Est.):
Heat Source / Generator On-site:
Potable Water / Sanitation Availability:
Shelter Manager Name / Title:
Radio or Satellite Phone Access:

Backup Shelter & Transportation Resources

Backup Shelter Name & Location:
Capacity & Known Limitations:
Transport Resources (Boats, ATVs, Aircraft, etc.):
Pickup Points & Assembly Areas:
Key Transportation Contacts (Name/Phone):

Evacuation & Shelter Activation Notes

Include notes on how evacuation decisions are made, where warnings come from (e.g., NWS, VPSO, Tribal Coordinator), how residents are notified (VHF, word-of-mouth, air raid sirens), and any known shelter challenges in extreme cold or flood events.

