

State of Alaska Individual Assistance

Applicants with questions regarding their state individual assistance application can contact the state individual assistance hotline.

State Individual Assistance

Hotline: 855-445-7131

Hours: 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Monday through Friday

State of Alaska Individual Assistance awards will be determined during the reconsideration process following each applicants' final determination from FEMA and SBA. Applicants to the state individual assistance program must have completed the appeal process with FEMA, and must accept an SBA loan if you are eligible, to be reconsidered for the State program. More information and news releases can be found at ready.alaska.gov/earthquake.