Significant Issues:

Juneau Glacial Lake Outburst Flood (GLOF) – State Disaster Declaration

USGS laser gauge data from Suicide basin indicates a release from the basin has started. NWS has issued a flood warning for the impacted areas with predicted crest as high as 16.6 ft @ 4pm AKDT tomorrow. This flood warning was issued at 0930am AKDT today with an ensuing press briefing by The City and Borough of Juneau (CBJ) and the Tlingit-Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska.

At the request of the CBJ/Tlingit-Haida Unified Command, the SEOC has resource ordered National Guard Servicemen in Juneau to support operations.

Governor Dunleavy as amended the previous declaration of disaster to include individual assistance.

SEOC will have two personnel in Juneau working closely with Unified Command to coordinate State of Alaska and Federal resources as Branch Director and Division Supervisor.

Visit <https://www.weather.gov/ajk/suicideBasin> and <https://www.juneauflood.com/#/home> for more information.

Presidential Summit in Alaska

The SEOC is monitoring the scheduled Presidential Summit between President Trump and the President of Russia, Vladimir Putin. This office is activated to support community impacts and consequence management.

Chevak Public Safety Building Fire – State Declaration

On July 8, 2025, a structure fire damaged the public safety building in the City of Chevak resulting in a local disaster declaration by the community. Governor Dunleavy has declared a disaster emergency for public assistance. The SEOC will be working with Chevak community leaders and FEMA to assess the damages and evaluate replacement options.

Coastal Storm – West Coast of Alaska

The Seward Peninsula southward along the Yukon Delta Coast is currently being impacted by a coastal storm. Nome, White Mountain, and Golovan are currently under flood watch from heavy rainfall through Thursday evening. Nome is expected to have the highest water with wave forecast to be 2 - 4 feet above mean high tide during this event. The storm also brings high surf from Nome to the southern Yukon Delta Coast with return to normal by Wednesday morning.
